

This Week at the District

Happy Spring!

This week marked the first day of classes for the Spring 2013 semester. I was privileged to visit each campus on Monday and see the Admissions and Records team in action. I would like to commend the staff at each of our colleges for being visible and ready to help students navigate their first day on campus.

Meeting with California State University, Fullerton

Dr. Ned Doffoney of North Orange County CCD and I met with Dr. Mildred Garcia, the newly appointed president of Cal State Fullerton. We were able to discuss areas of collaboration and how to develop transfer pathways despite impacted classes and programs. We discussed several transfer pathways and will be working toward having our respective Faculty work together to best serve all of Orange County's students.

AACC Workforce Development Institute

I attended the AACC Workforce Development conference this week and was able to hear about emerging trends in the workforce. There were several presentations on the role of the community college in workforce development and how it can be beneficial locally, regionally and on a statewide level. We will remain a part of these discussions as we continue to develop our own programs and services to serve our local community.

CCLC Legislative Conference

Coast was well represented in Sacramento this week. I would like to thank our Board President Lorraine Prinsky, Trustee Jerry Patterson, Trustee Jim Moreno, Trustee Mary Hornbuckle, Julie Frazier-Mathews and Dr. Martha Parham for representing Coast at several meetings throughout the weekend. Our Coast team serves on many statewide committees and this weekend attended the CCCT Board (Jim Moreno), Commission on Legislation (Martha Parham), ACES Board (Mary Hornbuckle) and represented the Orange County Legislative Task Force (as well as Coast) at several meetings with our legislators held over two days. It was an incredibly busy time, but critical as we move forward in the budget cycle to have a voice in these statewide discussions.

Sincerely,

From the Office of

President's Cabinet and Open Hours to rotate among centers

The President's Cabinet (PC) meetings, routinely scheduled every Thursday of the week from 9am-12pm, will take place at various sites during the spring 2013 term. In addition, the President's Open Hour which has been regularly scheduled on the last Thursday and first Friday of each month, from 8-9, will also be scheduled at various centers/sites. These changes are intended to establish stronger connections with staff and faculty at the various sites, and to provide greater access to the Open Hour for those who work at the sites (as opposed to the Administrative Center). We held our President's Cabinet meeting at the Newport Beach Campus last week and will hold this week's PC at Garden Grove. We are still working on schedules but hope that there will be time for more interaction with all of you before and during the meetings, as well as welcome brief presentations from various groups as part of the PC meeting.
